Please list any other postsecondary institutions you have attended or courses you have completed, if applicable:

(Name, location, years)

Essay: Please introduce yourself and your family and describe your homeschooling experience. Describe how homeschooling has uniquely suited you for your intended post-secondary education and future career or life plans. Share how you hope to benefit from HOME's scholarship opportunity. Please attach your essay to this form or as an attachment. Carefully proofread and edit your essay. Accurate, concise, and insightful writing is the goal. Your essay should be around 1000 words or two single-spaced, printed pages.

Letters of recommendation: Please have two separate individuals submit letters of recommendation as to why you should receive this scholarship. Letters should be submitted to the email or physical address listed on the first page, clearly marked in reference to your name, first and last. One reference should be an academic reference (or should attest to your abilities and dedication to the arts or trades, depending on your intended educational and career pursuits) and the other should be a character reference. These references should not be family members.

Signature: I confirm that the information I have provided is true to the best of my knowledge.
